Memorandum to:

SCHOOLS DIVISION SUPERINTENDENTS

This Office received information from the Central Office that a certain company claiming to have a MOA with DepEd Central Office, is collecting information and documents such as land titles, site development plan, etc. to facilitate classroom donations allegedly to be funded by international organizations. This is being investigated by the Central Office. You are advised to immediately inform our schools herein and advise them not to provide any information to any party.

For information and compliance.
